

From Ngai to Caesar (Paperback)

By Mercado Indanti

Xlibris Corporation, United States, 2007. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . From Ngai to Casaer: A Negro Story A Layman s Guide to Scriptural Interpretation This book tries to set forth that in our universe during ancient time there did exist an almighty God, an omni-presence spirit and methods of communications. Those methods included the metaphysical concept, magic, and a language common to all seven continents. Continent by continent the author presents evidence found in the Hebrew, Muslim, Christian, Hindu and Buddhist histories of a language of pre-Babel times. This evidence can be in recorded history, targum, folklore, poetry, legends or in the scriptures, verse, revelations and Vedas contained in the sacred books of the Bible, Avesta, I Ching, Koran, Puranas and other vedic books. This language was also the predecessor to the African Bantu and the Asian Rong root languages that pre-dated the Semitic based languages of early Mediterranean civilizations The author tries to give and understanding of the processes of sacred text compilation, the authorship of sacred books and the contributions of minorities, both people of color and women, to those processes. What did any ancient empire wish to include...
