A live wire, the third rail, the thing your momma told you to be afraid of, the creature that goes bump in the night. This ambitious, hard-hitting anthology takes on race relations in America, past and present. It holds back nothing and no race is spared its fire. These tales at times poignant, thought-provoking, violent, heart-breaking and humorous touch the soul of America, a soul wounded from the constant struggle across the racial divide. Barry C. Davis has created a literary mirror and invites you to see yourself. Are you brave enough to do so Will you like what you see This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
