

The Perfect Patsy: The Winger Murders

By Edward Cunningham

XLIBRIS. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 358 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.9in. Deborah Winger was 31 years old when she was killed in August of 1965. She was a slender, attractive young lady. She was in the process of adopting a three month old baby. Her husband of eight years, Mark, had graduated from V. M. I in Nuclear Physics and was working for the Illinois Nuclear Regulatory Agency. All who knew them thought they had a perfect marriage. On Sept. 29 at about 4: 30, Mark said he heard some noise in the dining area; he ran to that area and saw his wife being bludgeoned to death with a hammer by an intruder. He shot and killed him. The police said it was a justifiable homicide. In 1999 the police reopened the case. In June of 2002, Mark was convicted of the double murder of Donna and the intruder partially on the testimony of a person with whom Mark Winger had an affair. He was sentenced to two life terms. While in prison he attempted to hire a con to kill this lady and several others including the step-dad. He was convicted of two counts of solicitation...
