He was a time traveler early in life, but now he s simply a man who has spent a lot of time in a home for the mentally disabled. That is until a new psychiatrist, Dr. Josephine Lane does something that no one has ever done before. She believes him. As a result, he takes her on a journey by telling her of the time he spent in Paris in 1810. He fell in love with a wealthy heiress, but made the greatest mistake of his life by letting her slip through his fingers. Dr. Lane listens to his story with increasing interest, further convinced by the items from the past he willingly provides for her. When she finds out that his grief over this woman has prevented him from time traveling for twenty years, she encourages him to relearn the skill, and to take her along for the ride. ----- EXCERPT FROM BOOK And as he was soon to find, the most beautiful woman he had ever seen was also in Paris in 1810, so maybe everything had degraded aesthetically over time. He met Lorelai at a ball on his twenty fifth birthday. He never stood up and danced a single time that night. He watched from his chair as gentleman fell all over each other for a chance to dance with her. But he did not ask. He watched as she humored each and every one of them. He could tell who her mother was by the pleased...
