Dodo Press, United Kingdom, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 218 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A book of poetry by Archibald Lampman (1861-1899) who was a Canadian poet, born at Morpeth, Ontario, a village near Chatham. He was one of the Confederation Poets and was elected a Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada in 1895. He is widely regarded as Canada's finest 19th century English language poet. Lampman's poetry concerns Canada's rural life and the wonders of nature and can be compared to British romantic and nature poetry contemporary to his life. Lampman's ability to write detailed, meaningful, poems that depicted traditional Canadian and Native American life was one of his greatest triumphs as a poet and probably one of the reasons why his work has had lasting import in the Canadian canon.
