By Jean Janzen

GOOD BOOKS, United States, 2000. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Award-winning poet, Jean Janzen, sends us to explore the mystery of our connection to this earth, our dust and its dust, in this collection of poems. Award-winning poet. Jean Janzen demonstrates powerfully why she received The Creative Writing Fellowship from the National Endowment for the Arts. Janzen s poems send us to explore the mystery of our connections to this earth, our dust and its dust. These poems show us with certainty what we sense persistently-- that we are unequivocally physical and yet undeniably spiritual, so ephemeral and yet so bound. Jean Janzen, a well-known poet from Fresno, California, conducts readings of her poetry around North America and teaches several university classes. Jean Janzen s poems are lucid, clean, beautifully detailed--but she also knows well how fierce the hungers of body and soul are. --Jeff Gundy, poet.
