It is one of my personal favorite publications. It usually fails to charge an excessive amount. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

14 Hands Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Have you ever told a little white lie? Or maybe a bigger one that wasn't even white? Have you ever stomped through the front door all grumpy and barking at your kids, or your spouse? Have you ever questioned the value of being persistent, not giving up. Or being loyal. Have you ever had to work at making someone else happy? Have you ever shaded the truth in a business deal? Or pondered the meaning of the word selfish? Your dog hasn't. None of the above. And we can all learn from that. And that's what this book is about. Joe Camp has spent three decades wandering around inside the heart and soul of a dog, writing Benji stories, directing Benji movies, trying to understand how to better draw you, the audience, in there with me. This time and effort spent on four legs learning to inhale the world from a canine point of view has taught me many amazingly simple lessons about life. Lessons that can and should apply to our lives, yours and mine, because they work better. For you see, dogs know more than we do. By knowing less. They realize that one's soul prospers from sharing, caring, relating, fulfilling. And they know there is nothing more important in life than love. Not money. Not status. Not peer pressure. Nothing can make you feel better than doing something good for somebody else. Putting another being before yourself. Not cars. Not houses. Not facelifts. Not watching television. John Grogan, author of Marley Me, says, People can learn a lot from their dogs. Lessons on how to lead happier, more fulfilling...
