Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . 20 of profit from sale of each book is donated to ACLU: Oranguman pink woman is a darkly humorous novella focused on greed and an obsession with appearance, wealth, and power by a wealthy villager from Big Apple who paints himself orange as a token of respect toward village warriors. Oranguman, otherwise known as Om, has inherited a substantial amount of money and property from his father, Big Viagere. The Viageres have a reputation in Big Apple for questionable dealings through their business schemes, one of which is Om s gambling house that has been accused of bilking older people out of their savings. Om has three wives. His most recent wife, Pink Woman, is admired for her pink skin which is attributable to her use of a pink skin cream. She was purchased from a foreign country and villagers believe she has extra powers because she can speak several languages. Pink Woman introduced pink skin cream, colored lip grease, and eye-liner to Big Apple, and village women are imitating her. Om decides to run for Chief of Whyland, a position...
