AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2005. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Scat is a story about a highly intelligent young boy named Lil Fellow, his life, his family, and those he interacts with throughout the early years of his life. The reader will get to know and love each character they are reading about. The setting for this story is the early 1900s in a small town. This was the time when schools were still segregated, the time when sharecropping was popular, the days when whites and blacks-races-weren t treated the same in all respects but worked side by side to get whatever jobs needed doing done. You will not want to miss reading about Pa s merchant marine days, and Mr. Sato, the Japanese gentleman he meets at sea and establishes a friendship with. Sato plays a part in Lil Fellow s life, too. There is Charlie Oates, a black neighbor of the Butts s. He and his family play a great part in Lil Fellow s life and the town s. Nor will you want to miss Ms. Henrietta, the schoolteacher; Roof, the school bully; A. H. Slocham, the preacher; Sara, Lil Fellow s first love; Cutie, Lil Fellow s last love; and the many other interesting characters that intertwine in Lil Fellow s life. Lil Fellow, being highly intelligent, faces many challenges in his life. He has a hard time as he begins first grade because of this intelligence and a teacher with a bad attitude toward the male species. He, also has a hard time because of his stature. He is very short for his age. This makes him a prime target for the school bully. It is because of this teacher and the school bully that Lil Fellow...
