How noble in reason! How infinite in faculties! In form, and moving, how express and admirable! In action, how like an angel! In apprehension, how like a god! The beauty of the world! The paragon of animals! Accepting the world as he found it, Shakespeare made this masterpiece his study. His theme was humanity. His intent to so place the paragon of animals that he might see his shadow as he passed, holding before him the lesson, that as he was endowed with attributes of God and Devil, to reach the first he must forego the promptings of the latter, and banish selfishness.
