FOLLIES OF A LAZY WRITER: AN ODD INQUIRY OF AWARENESS (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . FOLLIES was not written by a LAZY WRITER. . It is in many ways an eclectic group of short stories that come together to form one rather eccentric narrative that will leave you both smiling and scratching your head. Dan Hagoood is a multimedia artist whose influence by the surrealists slowly becomes evident in his writing as well, leading to one of the most uniquely entertaining reads you ll ever enjoy. To learn more about Dan, see . . Janet Myles has been all over the world and made a ton of money writing about it. It was all extremely satisfying too. However, after a considerable amount of time at home, possibly too much time, other kinds of writing started sounding interesting as well. Fiction sounded like fun, and from there she, and more importantly we, start learning just how random and bizarre her imagination can be. In time her thoughts on story ideas are very entertainingly all over the map, so to speak. Along the way friends, family, and her agent Mark are all influential in their own ways, and are probably as amused as she is at some of the ideas that inevitably come to life. However, all of this fun creativity eventually becomes overshadowed by her need for travel and adventure as she once again starts thinking about the bigger world. Through much thoughtful contemplation, she comes up with a plan for the greatest adventure of her life, and she s had many. So this one is way over the top, and will gradually lead her into the strangest predicament anyone could ever imagine. all before an ending that even she could have never seen coming as the entire...
