By A J King

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. The human eye can see everything around us. But what about our inner self - the one saddled with fears and desires, doubts and dreams? Are these emotions Destined to be locked away in our hearts and our minds? In Monochrome Fervour, A. J. King shines a light on our universal experiences - unrequited love, the ebb and flow of past memories, and the undying power of hope and triumph. These 38 poems illustrate the human condition in all of its unvarnished complexity. Every emotional high and low, every shattered dream and vanquished nightmare, every undelivered blessing and eradicated burden are all distilled into A. J. Kings powerful words. Through vivid imagery informed by her unique experiences, Monochrome Fervour explores the contours and nuances of the human experience in a way that few others can.
