Reviews

This ebook can be worthy of a go through, and a lot better than other. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. Its been printed in an exceedingly easy way which is just soon after i finished reading this book where basically modified me, affect the way i really believe.

She ceased work only 2 months prior to the birth of the last baby, but did not work during the year following. The husband was a cotton-mill employee whose earnings the year after the babys birth were 900. Schedule 1088: The mother, aged 26, married at 16 and had 8 Eregnancies in 10 years. All her children were live born, but she ad lost 3 in infancy and 1 at 5 years. Two died at 3 months of cholera infantum, and the other 2 deaths were from pneumonia. Four children, including the last baby, were surviving at the time of the agents visit. The last child had been artificially fed from birth, because the mother had no milk. This mother had worked in a textile mill since the age of 11, a period of 5 years previous to marriage, and irregularly since. She was not engaged in gainful employment, however, either the year preceding or that following the birth of the last baby. The fathers earnings for the year after the last babys birth approximated 776. The father could read and write, but the mother could not. Schedule 1184: The mother was 34 years of age. She had 11 pregnancies in 12 years. Three of these terminated in miscarriages. There were 8 children live born, but 3 died in infancy. The last baby, which was surviving at the time of the agents visit, was weaned at 2 months because the mother had again become...
