Some may stop and speak with our inner voice but most are too ephemeral to be but a wordless whisper. These formless apparitions linger as unfinished images of whatever it was they were trying to tell us. Poems are the words of these vague whispers. . [T]he contemplative poems in vague whispers surprise and delight in painting dimly lit suburban landscapes (a) multi-layered shade of the poet s observations and musings . Each poem is both a singular painting - observable at the intersection of color, experience and perception - and an integral part of a gallery wall in the entire book s collection. These poems invite you to return to the gallery often for a fresh look and new meaning.
