It contains nothing theoretical or fanciful, but is a practical, reliable guide and help to teachers, one based on experience in the schoolroom and demonstrated on the playground. Its purpose is to give to Normal School Students and Teachers a Practical knowledge of Physical Education of the present time, one that will enable them to introduce and carry on the work in both rural and city schools. The principal claims for consideration are: 1. It covers the needs of all Elementary Schools, both Rural and City. 2. It suggests and advocates only plain, practical and durable equipment, which the local carpenter can design and erect. 3. Its methods are all workable. 4. It seeks the health, happiness and well being of the children. 5. It tells the teacher how to secure these ends. 6. It combines all things needful in One Book which furnishes to the busy instructor the help of most worth. It includes: 1. A...
