Both elated and refreshed after her break in the Caribbean with her girlfriends, and the erotic affair she enjoyed with Sean the Surfing Bartender, Sam settles back into her role as a working mom. Things don't stay too normal for too long, though, as she soon receives word that her former lover, the incredibly sexy, 25-year-old stud Lachlan is on his way back to town. In next to no time, the heat is back on in their relationship. However, even though they're unable to keep their hands off each other, Sam begins to wonder if there just might be a future for their relationship. If what Lachlan is saying is true - if he really is in love with her and he's thinking of ensuring he moves back - she needs to introduce him to her parents, her kids. Only Lachlan maybe planning something Sam never expected in a million years.
