Capstone Press, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. After fourth-grade scientist Curious McCarthy observes her dad fixing their doorbell, she starts to wonder about the science of sound. Meanwhile at school, it s time for Curious to pick an instrument for band. Curious chooses the flute, but the band director says Curious s lips are all wrong for the slim woodwind. Can that be true, and if it is, can science help Curious find her perfect instrument? A sound-related science experiment will have readers putting the story into action, while a glossary and reader questions support the text.
