In recent years however we have witnessed this wisdom being rejected and coloring for adults has become a widespread and growing pastime. But why has coloring for adults become so popular? There are many reasons for the explosion in adult coloring, but here are just a few. Coloring Relieves Stress And Anxiety Psychiatrists have long known that coloring relaxes the fear center of the brain and allows your mind to get some rest. Indeed, Carl Jung, the founder of analytical psychology, is known to have given his patients mandalas to color more than one hundred years ago. In the hectic world we inhabit today the stress relieving properties of coloring are probably more valuable than they have ever been. Coloring Trains Your Brain To Focus Staying inside the lines as you color requires focus and,...
