Excerpt from The Latter-Day Saints Millennial Star, Vol. 74: August 22, 1912 Investigation of sacred writings is commendable, and when conducted for the purpose of obtaining correct information should be encouraged. When pursued in a spirit of incredulity, or to provoke contention Dr cast doubt on the inspiration of ancient or modern prophets, it is not profitable but injurious. Diligence in comparing text with text to discover the real intent and meaning of the respective writers is desirable, rather than efforts to draw inferences from the bare wording, which often, being but trans lation, does not warrant the conclusions hastily reached. The letter killeth, it is the spirit that maketh alive. - president charles W. Penrose, in Improvement Era.
