Moonshine Cove Publishing, LLC, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . MURDER GIVES A BURNED OUT ATTORNEY A CHANCE TO SHAKE HIS DEPRESSION AND REGAIN HIS LOST LIFE. After winning the biggest case of his career but falling in love with Jennifer, his client, Matt falls into a prolonged depression when his love is not returned until Sarah comes into his life, but two weeks later, she s found dead in his house. Matt finds her death suspicious and begins to investigate. He eventually discovers she was a reporter working undercover on stories concerning his role in Jennifer s murder acquittal and the campaign of a congressman running for the Senate. His life is in danger as he uncovers stones that certain powerful people do not want uncovered. She kissed him full on the lips with a full body hug. Can t we be friends? He remembered her warm hugs from the trial. More than friends. Much more. Unfortunately, only I thought that. He smiled, a fake one. Of course. I see her for what she is, a selfish person who takes no prisoners. Let the strong survive. That La Jolla Lawyer is one of the best mysteries I have read. This book is brilliant. I couldn t put it down. In the character of Matt Dawson, Robert Rogers has created one of the most dynamic protagonist in the genre. Watching Matt fall from a legal impresario to a deadbeat drunk only to rise again like a phoenix from the ashes of his life is simply breathtaking. Rogers evokes that pain and the passion of his main character in vivid detail. The reader cannot help being captivated by this story. -- David, author of the highly acclaimed Narmer s Pallet.
