Economic Sovereignty: Prosperity in a Free Society (Paperback)

By Thomas E Kurek

Alvarian Press, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Thomas E Kurek (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .We live in an economic epic, and the climax approaches. Pungent warnings curl the nostrils of all but those who are sidetracked in rose gardens of wishful thinking. President Obama called income inequality the defining challenge of our times. Occupy Wall Street rallied against the rich. The TEA Party said that Americans were Taxed Enough Already. American unemployment shifted to declining labor force participation at an astonishing rate. Young adults with college education languished in their parents basements with mountains of debt and ungainful, irregular jobs. The government promised our elderly social security and healthcare in exchange for tax payments; the promise was broken. Prices were increasing, while the government obfuscated inflation. Massive government spending sacrificed our future to the present. It seemed that every segment of America had its existential crisis. Severe warnings of economic calamity began to circle the wagons. A French economist preaching income inequality was paraded around the media and political forums like a prophet of global salvation. All around us, the drums of class warfare were beating stronger by the minute, instigating deep...
