It is well fortified; and hither is brought a great part of the treasures and merchandise of Peru and Chili which are exported to Spain. It has an elegant cathedral, a small Indian church, two monasteries, five convents, a college, a beautiful square; and about 33,000 inhabitants. The trade is carried on with the provinces of Peru by means of carts drawn by oxen, which travel together in caravans. The country around is quite open and level, furnishing every species of American and European productions; but the most extraordinary circumstance is the propagation of cattle, which have multiplied so immensely that all are...
