THE JOURNEY OF SEBASTIAN ERRAZURIZ (HARDBACK)

Die Gestalten Verlag, Germany, 2012. Hardback. Condition: New. 1st ed.. Language: English . Brand New Book. A new generation of creatives is increasingly producing work at the nexus of art and design. A young trailblazer of this movement is Sebastian Errazuriz, who successfully melds elements of sculpture and performance with design. The graphic visual language of Errazuriz, a Chilean now living in New York, plays masterfully with elements of nature and pop culture. The lightness and sneaky irony of his oeuvre has often been compared with that of Erwin Wurm, while its morbid charm suggests a kinship with Tom Sachs and Gabriel Orozco. Errazuriz s work has already been shown at over 40 exhibits in cities including New York, Paris, Tokyo, and Barcelona. Sotheby s sold one of his pieces at its legendary Important Twentieth Century Design Auction when he was only 28 years old. Sebastian Errazuriz is especially well known for his project Memorial of a Concentration Camp. For this artwork he had a 10-meter-tall magnolia tree planted in the middle of the soccer field at Santiago de Chile s national soccer stadium--on the exact spot where in 1973 dictator Augusto Pinochet had thousands of political prisoners tortured and then executed. For one week Errazuriz thus turned the arena into a public park that invited contemplation. On the last day, the artist had the two best Chilean soccer teams play a match around the tree for 20,000 spectators. This book is the first comprehensive collection of Sebastian Errazuriz s work, which the New York Times calls humorously avant-garde. It includes texts by artist Tom Sachs and gallery owner Cristina Grajales.
