BROWN RIVER, WHITE OCEAN: AN ANTHOLOGY OF TWENTIETH-CENTURY PHILIPPINE LITERATURE IN ENGLISH

Rutgers University Press. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 304 pages. The 31 short stories and 108 poems in this anthology represent a literary history of English writing in the Philippines, from its introduction at the turn of the century to the present. These works belong to the river of Philippine literary tradition, which includes, among others, literatures in Tagalog, Visayan, Spanish, and Ilokano. The works here contain images drawn from different social strata, different time periods, different locales. They represent the spectrum of contemporary Philippine society -- business people, doctors, soldiers, farmers, workers, slum dwellers, immigrants, artists, students. The themes are both modern and timeless -- incest, the burdens of tradition, the horrors of tyranny, exile, love. And the voices are familiar and yet touched with strangeness. In this anthology, from the earliest story, Dead Stars, by Paz Marquez Benitez, to Manuel Ortega Abiss recent poem Strike, the manifest culture is distinctly and uniquely Filipino. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
