Therefore, combining these together, I hope in this Report to lay before you such information as will enable the public to form correct conclusions respecting a district which now attracts so much attention; and by doing this to attain the object of the department under whose authority this exploration was undertaken. On the accompanying sketch, the distances between the principal points along the river, and the direction from these points to the different tracts of land marked on the sketch, are as nearly correct as it was possible to make them with the appliances at hand. Leaving Langley on the 18th of August, we commenced our exploration through that part of the New Westminster District lying between Boundary Bay and the Langley Settlement. In the general features of the country, very little change was observable. A few patches of swamp, grass land were met with; also two belts of alder land. (See sketch.) With the exception of these, the country is heavily timbered, with considerable fallen timber and thick undergrowth, the soil light and gravelly, and...
