Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Illustrated Catholic Almanac of Ontario for 1895, With Clergy List: Approved by the Archbishops and Bishops of Ontario The antidote to the poison of bad books is the The Apostolate of the Press, carried on in the publication and propagation of good Catholic newspapers and books, is a work of the last importance and of the utmost necessity for Catholic interests in this country. As we are circumstanced in this country very much as the Catholics in England, the following words of Cardinal Manning will be to the point here: The whole literature of this country (England), says his Eminence, is written by those who sometimes unconsciously, sometimes consciously, assume an attitude of hostility to our faith. I say sometimes unconsciously, because being born in that state they often do so without being aware that they have received an heirloom of false principles and of false histories respecting the Holy Catholic Church, without knowing it they are perpetually incorporating them with what they write, so that the greater part of the literature of this country, which is in the hands of us all, contains a systematic contradiction of all that we believe. The newspapers which fill the whole country day by day are animated by a spirit which is against us; and they are filled by details and narratives and correspondence, and with fables, fictions, fabrications and absurdities - anything that can pander to the morbid appetite, to the craving for scandals against Catholic institutions, Catholic priests and Catholic nuns. This is but too faithful a picture of the condition of things in Western Canada. For years the atmosphere of the country has been foul and reeking with the...
