One of our friends who is an artist remarked: How well your cameras have reproduced the many moods of whimsical nature! Our guests were all glad that our Kodaks had not been left behind when we took our vacation trips. Hogging the reader s kind indulgence for the above prelude, I will proceed to explain, as fully as possible, how our slides were made. Last fall, as we had a whole winter before us and enough money in the treasury, we decided to try lantern-slide making; we also decided that we would not purchase a lantern until we were certain we could make slides. Ralph was appointed to look up data on making slides, and...
