[.]frightened the other birds and the squirrels, but both of them were looking and listening with all their might. A shadow fell from above, and Robert Robin cocked his head on one side and looking up, saw Mister Jim Crow flying high above the top of the big basswood tree. Mister Crow was circling around, and around, and looking down into the woods, but he was not saying a word. He was trying to see what had frightened the other birds and the squirrels. Robert Robin could hear Jim Crow s wings go Swish! Swish! through the air. Suddenly Mister Gabriel Chipmunk stopped screaming his Chip! Chip! Chip! and Robert Robin could see him sitting on the stump. He was sitting so still that he looked like a little light brown knot.[.].
