They said that when the end was near, a Bridge would come, and lead them out of the darkness of that dying world. Allie Taylor's life was relatively normal. . . Until Revik showed up. And told her she was that Bridge. SHADOW: ALLIES WAR EPISODES 13-17 All what he has done, he has done for the greater good. . . Following the disappearance of the infamous Sword and leader of the anti-human rebellion, Allie finds herself despised by every free seer in the western world. . . and most in the East. Hiding in an underground cell to stay alive, Allie struggles with yet another visage of Revik, too, who turns into a feral animal once free of the Dreng. She only has one shot at saving him, and it means learning more about his past than she ever wanted to know. It also means re-earning his trust, a near-impossible task given what she had to do to get him free. Most of the other seers, especially Balidor, want...
