Cooley: Before the Democracy of Syracuse, in Mass Meeting Assembled, on Tuesday Evening, Nov; 1, 1853 The answer to these important inquiries - deeply important to every patriotic citizen of this State - is, I doubt not, at this moment, upon the lip of every intelligent man now within the sound of my voice. You will say with one united voice - with one great, earnest, harmonious tone - with a sound that will echo to the utmost verge of the State, in all directions, in all places, and at all times, that your prosperity has been, and must continue to be, attributable to the great Erie Canal! It is, indeed, to be attributed to that Herculean enterprise. Had not that canal been constructed, it is not, I venture to say, too much to assert, that this city would never have existed! Had the enemies of the immortal Clinton succeeded in their fiend ish hostility to his enlightened and patriotic plans of internal improvements, this spot, where we now stand - the surround ing country...
