I want a never-give-up family, Libby Norstad tells her widowed father, captain of the steamboat Christina. I want a family that believes in me, even when I'm not perfect. A family that sticks together, even though it's hard. We can be that family for each other, Pa promises. And Caleb and the other people who work on the Christina will be our larger family. But Libby has lived with a wealthy aunt since her mother died and discovers a different world. Then another family, Emma and little Henry, pushes toward a choice. Will her journey to compassion help her become a Freedom Seeker?
