Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Report by the Bureau of Franchises Upon the Application of the Automatic Scoreboard Company, Inc: For the Right to Construct, Maintain and Operate Electric Wires in the Borough of Manhattan for the Purpose of Operating a System of Automatic Baseball Scoreboards; February 24, 1917 The Company now proposes to extend its operations, having secured one hundred additional boards. It desires the right to cover the entire Borough of Manhattan. The Company contemplates continuing the use of the New York Telephone Company's wires. The rates charged by the latter company for its wires are $50 per year per mile of circuit: Where the use of the circuit is for less than one year, as in the present case, the baseball season being for approximately six months, a proportionate rate is charged, to which is added a concession or short charge, which is one-quarter of the charge for the unexpired portion of the year. While the results of the temporary operation were not perhaps conclusive as to the commercial possibilities of the service, nevertheless sufficient information has been obtained to permit the drafting of a proposed form of contract, the principal features of which are as follows.
