Matthew 28:19 (NIV) However, when we have tried to do it, we have been met with a mixture of results and have found ourselves often discouraged and frustrated. The good news? For those who know what they re doing, it s never been easier. In today s world, there are millions of people searching for the truth and a meaning to life, and they are finding it. The church is growing in numbers at a greater rate than it has ever done in history. But for many of us, these ?gures are meaningless. The people we meet are grasping at anything that offers them hope, everywhere it seems, other than the one place they can find it, the Christian Church.
