MP Publishing, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. On his last day in power, with a blizzard threatening 18 inches of snow, Sheriff Bittersmith s is called to the scene of a crime. A farmer has been stabbed clean through the neck with a pitchfork. Two sets of tracks lead from the barn, and the dead man s frantic wife exclaims her daughter is missing. Convinced it was Gale G Wain, the orphan who worked at the farm, Bittersmith follows the vanishing footprints into the storm. Three miles away, Gale G Wain is alone and close to dead. He s holed up in an empty farmhouse, half-dressed and nearly dead after falling through lake ice. Innocent, but unlikely to ever stand trial in a town as corrupt as Bittersmith, he loads his gun and prepares to defend himself against the dead man s bloodthirsty sons and the Sheriff s Department. Set in small town Wyoming in the 70s and unfolding in a single day, Clayton Lindemuth s debut novel, Cold Quiet Country, explores small-town corruption and the lengths some people will go to exact revenge.
