Reviews

A brand new electronic book with a new standpoint. It is written in basic phrases rather than confusing. It has been designed in an extremely basic way which is merely right after I finished reading through this publication where it basically altered me, change the way I believe.

COMMITTEE OF EXPERTS ON PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION: REPORT ON THE ELEVENTH SESSION (16-20 APRIL 2012)

United Nations. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Committee of Experts on Public Administration: Report on the Eleventh Session (16-20 April 2012), United Nations: Committee of Experts on Public Administration, United Nations: Economic and Social Council, Central America, Panama, and the Dominican Republic coped well with the global financial crisis of 2008-09. The impact was generally less severe and shorter lived than in previous episodes, the balance of payments adjustment was orderly, and the stability of the financial system was not compromised. This resilience can be attributed to a large extent to the strengthening of the fiscal frameworks, monetary management, and financial reforms conducted in the years preceding the global crisis. Nevertheless, the region faces considerable challenges for the period ahead, including the need to raise medium term growth above historical levels and protect macroeconomic and financial stability. This book argues that meeting these challenges will have to come from within, in light of the anticipated modest demand growth from trade partners. Raising growth in the region will depend on the adoption of structural reforms that generate substantial productivity gains. Rebuilding fiscal space and secur.
