Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Organization and Status of Missouri Troops, Union and Confederate, in Service During the Civil War On April 15, 1861, the President issued his proclamation calling for 75,000 militia for the purpose of suppressing insurrection and to cause the laws to be duly executed. This proclamation was in terms as follows: Whereas, the laws of the United States have been for some time past and now are opposed and the execution thereof obstructed in the States of South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, Louisiana, and Texas by combinations too powerful to be suppressed by the ordinary course of judicial proceedings or by the powers vested in the marshals by law: Now, therefore, I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, in virtue of the power in me vested by the Constitution and the laws, have thought fit to call forth, and hereby do call forth, the militia of the several States of the Union, to the aggregate number of 75,000, in order to suppress said combinations and to cause the laws to be duly executed. The details...
