Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God Psalms 14:1 KJV Trying to live right is both wonderful and challenging. In the book Savior we will take a look at the struggling situation that the people of Exodus experienced. A closer observation of this dynamic story shows us many similar challenges of our own. It is through their journey to be free from bondage that we find the hidden answers to overcoming many of our own obstacles and challenges in life. As we dig deeper into the text, we will find many things that haven t been talked about until now. In addition to a great lesson this book includes descriptive charts to give you a better insight on the scriptures. This informative piece of work from beginning to end is packed with revealing ingredients for the unbelievers, believers, and everyone else in between. Savior is an empowered composition composed with soul touching messages from biblical accounts within the bible. While referencing to the bible itself, the writer gives the readers more insight. The message entitled Send for me a David is also included in this book. The biblical account can be found in I Samuel chapter 17. This message has a helpful section inside that reveals things such as this- The story of David and Goliath is about more than just a young boy fighting a giant. The heavy armor that Goliath was wearing represents extra weight. These represent the extra problems that are attached to the giant problem Goliath that rises up against us in our lives. It deals with battling the enemy. The shield bearer that went before Goliath carrying the shield, had nothing to do...
