I should also state, beside, that this poor young man was attacked, several years-since, by an eruption on the face, which had resisted all medical treatment. This inveterate psoric disposition had, without doubt, rendered the action of homoeopathic remedies less efficacious. TREATMENT OF TYPHOID FEVER. The Homoeopathic School possesses precious clinical studies upon this disease, among others, those of Doctor Bartle, a military physician, who employed the new method in the hospitals for many years. We cannot follow a better guide in the exposition of the treatment of typhoid fever; we will add to his the results of our own experience, as succinctly as possible, in order to furnish to Allopathic practitioners, in a few pages, sure and...
