Rt-Miller Publishers, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The anonymous call is brief, its message ominous. I know everything about you. Who you love. Who you hate. Your secrets. Your fears. I know things you've never told a single soul. And I'm going to destroy you and everyone in your life. With years of police experience, homicide Detective Amanda Nettles is no stranger to the danger and risk associated with donning her badge and weapon. She's built her career on it. Saved lives. One strange call from a faceless madman won't scare her off. When an explosion rocks downtown Charlotte-with Amanda in the blast zone, she knows this is the work of her stalker. But who? Why? Injured and struggling to gather clues on the perpetrator, she discovers they eerily and indisputably lead directly to her. With no one to trust, she'll have to risk involving the one G-man who's as by-the-book as they come and hope that their camaraderie will hold long enough for her to prove her innocence. FBI Agent Baker Jackson Robinson's life has never been a cakewalk. Prior to his sister's comatose state, he jumped right into the chaos and danger if it meant saving a life. Now that he's raising a pre-teen relying on him alone, he needs to skirt around danger at all costs. With the city in a state of emergency, Robinson must decipher the information incriminating the suddenly elusive detective. Something is seriously wrong because the woman he knows would never lay waste to her hometown-with herself in the center. Would face pure evil head-on for answers. Would never hide out. With each new event and the FBI Director breathing down his back, Robinson must...
