

It Wasnt All Dancing and Other Stories

By Ms. Mary Ward Brown

University Alabama Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 154 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 6.1in. x 0.4in. With the 11 stories in this popular collection, Mary Ward Brown offers her devoted fans a palette of true literary pleasures. The hallmarks of her style - the fully realized characters, her deep sensitivity, a defining sense of place and time - are amply employed to involve and delight the reader. All but one of the stories are set in Alabama. They deal with small but dramatic turning points in the lives of characters who happen to be southerners, many of them caught between Old South sensibility and New South modernity. Through their diverse voices, Brown proves herself a graceful and gifted storyteller who writes with an authoritative pen, inventing and inhabiting the worlds of her characters with insight, compassion, and wit. First published in cloth in 2002, the collection was greeted with national applause. Southern Living glowed, Mary Ward Brown. . . creates stories with Southern charm and brilliance in this her second book. She mixes the tensions of family, economics, romance, and social standing to create stories faithful to the Black Belt and the complexities of the simple life. She captures the decisive...
