Brand New Book  Print on Demand .On Sept. 2, 1990, this 31 year old married ship officer was in two days hence about to go back to college in order to become a civil engineer, and no longer being away for a month or two - and probably not waiting until that end of college before my wife Louise and I having a few orphans. But that night a boat collision changed everything. As the sun rose, the surgery on the left, lower temple of my brain - the verbal part - had a little of it removed.
