Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Manual of Information Relative to the Philippine Civil Service: Showing the Classified and Unclassified Positions, the Conditions Governing Examinations and Appointments, the Rules for Rating Examination Papers, and Specimen Examination Questions; Also the Civil Service Act and the Civil Service Rules Section 1. This Manual contains information relative to the conditions under which appointments are made to the Philippine civil service. The scope and character of the principal examinations for entrance to the service are outlined and information is given upon other matters which are usually the subject of correspondence. Persons seeking information in regard to the service should therefore carefully read this Manual before making inquiries of the Board in regard to questions which may be fully answered herein. If information is desired which is not given in the Manual, letters of inquiry should be addressed to the Philippine Civil Service Board, Manila. The Board does not receive applications for admission to the civil service of the United States. All such applications should be addressed to the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D.C. Civil positions in the Military Division of the Philippines are not in the Philippine civil service, but are in the civil service of the United States and are, therefore, not subject to examination or certification by this Board. The positions referred to include those under the Adjutant General, Inspector General, Chief Quartermaster, Chief Commissary, Chief Surgeon, Chief Paymaster, Engineer Officer, Ordnance Officer and Signal Officer. On September 19th, 1900, the United States Philippine Commission enacted a law known as the Civil Service Act, which provides for the organization of the Philippine Civil Service Board, which is authorized by the act...
