Download in both Science Fiction Adventure and Science Fiction High Tech categories When Zahn recovers an extraordinary meteorite impacted into the silvery beach near his home, the course of his life is changed forever. Fearing that the observatory will confiscate the meteorite if it truly is what he suspects it to be, he hides it away for days, conflicted in what to do. All the while, the mystery of his mothers disappearance continues to plague him. After twelve long years, he is the last person on the islands who believes she may still be alive. Even though he has no evidence for it, he cannot shake the feeling that she has been plucked off of the planet itself. And then, in the midst of unspeakable dreams, he is awoken by a strange tapping at his window. Someone has come a great distance and scaled the side of his home for one unyielding purpose: To reclaim what was lost. With the help of a Confederation captain and his sentient starship, Zahn plunges deep into the Ocean of Space, encountering a remarkable pilot, stunning in both her talent and...
