This book is the antidote: twelve stories, each one imbued with the true spirit of holiday-sharing, generosity, forgiveness, faith, music, laughter and love. Here are twelve stories about ordinary people who make extraordinary choices which forever change the lives of those around them: ---a college student just trying to get home for the holidays --- brothers trapped in an escalating cycle of conflict --- a practical joke with an unexpected result --- two surprise deliveries, and more. . . . Read them all at once, or savor them one day at a time until the 25th of December. Twelve Days For Christmas will make you sit back, relax, and remember the holiday moments that really matter.
