Excerpt from History of the Member Churches of the Caldwell Baptist Association, Incorporated In the In the Old Testament, Genesis we read, In the beginning God created Did God s creation end after six days? Did God look down and see the need of a community almost one hundred years ago? The time was at the beginning of the twentieth century. The place was called Needmore, a rural community, with many scattered homes. Families were large, many with ten, perhaps twelve children. Often three generations lived together as one family. It was a good place to live. The people were farmers, hunters of wild animals, and fishermen. They made their medicine from roots and herbs. Any surplus not needed for food was sold or traded for other needs. They cut trees, sawed their own logs, and built their homes. Mr. Clingman Clark made bricks and built his own home. This house is still standing. Everyone worked hard and no one felt poor. Neighbors had time to visit and were always ready to help in times of need, although the distance was sometimes miles...
