In this work Dr. Bryant presents three strategies for reinvigorating the study and teaching of history: 1. Social Studies should be history-centered and not a catch-all course. 2. Social Studies teachers should utilize a constructivist, or student-centered approach . 3. Social Studies curriculum must be multicultural in approach and materials. The very purpose and meaning of teaching history is currently being debated in our society-from school boards and barber shops to the halls of Congress. Now More Than Ever challenges the reader to enter this debate with a fresh perspective and renewed passion.
