Number of 40-minute periods per week. tTwo 40-minute periods for Physical Training; one 20-minute period (as a minimum) for Civic Patriotism. Note--The first two years work may seem a little heavy, but when it is understood that physical education and civic patriotism require no preparation on the part of the student the plan will be found workable. THE TWO-YEAR COURSE This course is designed primarily for all schools having less than six instructors, and for students in any school who are unable to spend four years in commercial work, but who feel that they desire to fit themselves for business. There are many young people of unquestioned ability thus situated. Unless provision is made to receive them in this work, the department of commercial science can be said to function only imperfectly. Great...
