Jane Austen Adlestrop: Her Other Family (Paperback)

By Victoria Huxley

WINDRUSH PUBLISHING SERVICES, United Kingdom, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. New ed.. Language: English . Brand New Book. The story of Jane Austen s links with the idyllic village of Adlestrop and Stoneleigh Abbey, the ancestral homes of the two branches of the Leigh family, has not yet been fully told. Jane s mother Cassandra was a Leigh, a dynasty that boasted an Elizabethan Lord Mayor, ducal marriage alliances, a peerage granted by Charles I, Oxford luminaries as well as the spectre of lunacy and threats of bankruptcy. Jane Austen visited her Leigh cousins at Adlestrop several times and kept in constant touch with events there by letter. In Gloucestershire she first heard of Sir Humphry Repton who was employed by the Leighs and saw at first-hand how the eighteenth-century craze for improvements totally changed the village landscape. On one dramatic occasion she accompanied her cousin, the Reverend Thomas Leigh, to Stoneleigh Abbey which he had inherited - a legacy endlessly disputed and longed for by other family members - including Jane herself. Jane Austen Adlestrop opens up a fresh window on the author s life and experience. It examines the probabilities that Adlestrop Park, the Parsonage House and Stoneleigh Abbey...
