Reviews

This is the finest publication we have read through right up until now. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. Its been written in an remarkably easy way in fact it is only after i finished reading through this book by which basically altered me, affect the way i think.

HarperCollins Publishers (Australia) Pty Ltd, Australia, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. The no.1 bestselling non-fiction hit! Tara Moss s first work of non-fiction - a fascinating mix of memoir and social comment - is sparking conversation all over the country. What are your fictions? Tara Moss has worn many labels in her time, including author , model , gold-digger , commentator , inspiration , dumb blonde , feminist and mother , among many others. Now, in her first work of non-fiction, she blends memoir and social analysis to examine the common fictions about women. She traces key moments in her life - from small-town tomboy in Canada, to international fashion model in the 90s, to bestselling author taking a polygraph test in 2002 to prove she writes her own work - and weaves her own experiences into a broader look at everyday sexism and issues surrounding the under-representation of women, modern motherhood, body image and the portrayal of women in politics, entertainment, advertising and the media. Deeply personal and revealing, this is more than just Tara Moss s own story. At once insightful, challenging and entertaining, she asks how we can change the old fictions, one woman at a time. Hits its mark with sharp-shooting precision . Moss skill is in marshalling the evidence and communicating it in a way that is accessible, warm, open, lucid and passionate . Moss is a serious thinker Dr Clare Wright, the Age A remarkable book - the kind that rewires your brain and its preconceptions in the best way possible. Intelligent, riveting and invigorating Benjamin Law, Australian journalist and author This is a book which needs to be read by men and women. Well written, clearly argued, informative, powerful and thought provoking. Forget everything you thought you knew...
