Forgotten Books, 2018. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Under Which Master, or the Story of the Long Strike at Coverdale: A Romance of Labor As we reach the corner of Dale and Mine Streets, we approach a large Catholic church, the largest church in fact, in the city. It is a fine edifice, with tall, slender spire lifting its gilded cross heavenward where it glows and burns in the light of the morning sun like a beacon light from the Eternal City. Beginning with Mine Street, and from there to River or Front Street, the first street east of the Middle Valley Railroad along Dale Street, lies the business part of Coverdale; while on the cross streets and the streets parallel with Dale Street are the residences of the tradespeople and business men of the town. In this portion of the town, lying to the north of Dale Street, and in sight of the Cover homestead, is the neat and unpretending home of Mrs. Clatty. Going back to the place from which we started, to take up the trend of the story so that it may be clear and intelligible to the reader, we will describe a little more minutely these scenes. The house in which the Dales live is situated on the north side of Dale Street, and fronting on it. On the east side of this lot runs a narrow street called Glen Lane, leading from the bluffs on the north and crossing Dale Street runs southward a little way, ending in a deep, narrow ravine which leads to the glen before mentioned, lying south of the town. Crossing right at this point, the Coverdale Cedar Summit Railroad has erected a high bridge spanning the...
